

Company Profile

Formed in 1995, Mission Critical Limited is an established software solutions and specialist hardware provider in the areas of Document Management, Workflow and Digital Signature Technology.

Mission Critical assures its clients of the highest level of service, delivered with consistency, professionalism and enthusiasm. The company is centrally based in the West Midlands and has a dedicated team of consultants and developers with experience in all sectors of industry from an international client base.

Working closely with you we recommend only the best solutions to your e-business requirements. We select solutions based on your requirements which are fast to deploy, simple to use, scalable and cost effective. We offer a full range of Consultancy services, please take a look at our Services page for more detail.

We are authorised resellers for.....

..... and can recommend the best solutions to your e-business requirements which are fast to deploy, simple to use, scalable and cost effective. We offer a full range of services including;

- Developing strategies for document management and workflow
- Conducting feasibility studies to analyse your current systems and review the options for improvement
- Creating business cases for implementing solutions
- Supply of Digital Signature Software
- Proposing, supply and implementation of web-based solutions
- Application Hosting
- Solutions Consultancy
- Software Development
- Technical Implementation
- Bureau Scanning Service

Typical applications include;

- Electronic customer correspondence tracking within a Customer Relations Department
- Electronic Capture and management of Claims Documentation within a local Government Benefits Department
- Web enabled management of high value underwriting business dockets

More details and full case studies can be found on our website at:

www.mission-critical.co.uk